

| Question |     |  |  | Marking details                                                                                                                                                                           | Marks available |     |     |       |       |      |
|----------|-----|--|--|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-----|-----|-------|-------|------|
|          |     |  |  |                                                                                                                                                                                           | AO1             | AO2 | AO3 | Total | Maths | Prac |
| 4        | (a) |  |  | A constructiveB destructiveC conservativeaward (2) for all three correctaward (1) for any one correct                                            | 2               |     |     | 2     |       |      |
|          | (b) |  |  | magma rises / comes through gap (1)(magma / lava) cools to form new (igneous) rock / islands (1)award (1) for any reference to volcanoes if no other mark credited | 2               |     |     | 2     |       |      |
|          | (c) |  |  | earthquakes occur (1)due to plates rubbing together / (build-up of) friction (1)                                                                                    | 2               |     |     | 2     |       |      |
|          |     |  |  | Question 4 total                                                                                                                                                                          | 6               | 0   | 0   | 6     | 0     | 0    |