

5. In normal circumstances, nitrogen in the soil is recycled and causes no harm to aquatic organisms in nearby streams or rivers.

(a) Describe how nitrogen is recycled in the soil.

[4]

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

(b) Use of artificial fertilisers increases the level of nitrogen in the soil. Explain why this becomes harmful to aquatic organisms.

[4]

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

BLANK PAGE