

8. Photosynthesis is the process by which green plants produce their own glucose.

(a) Complete the word equation for photosynthesis below.

[1]

..... + → glucose + oxygen

(b) State three different ways green plants use the glucose they produce.

[3]

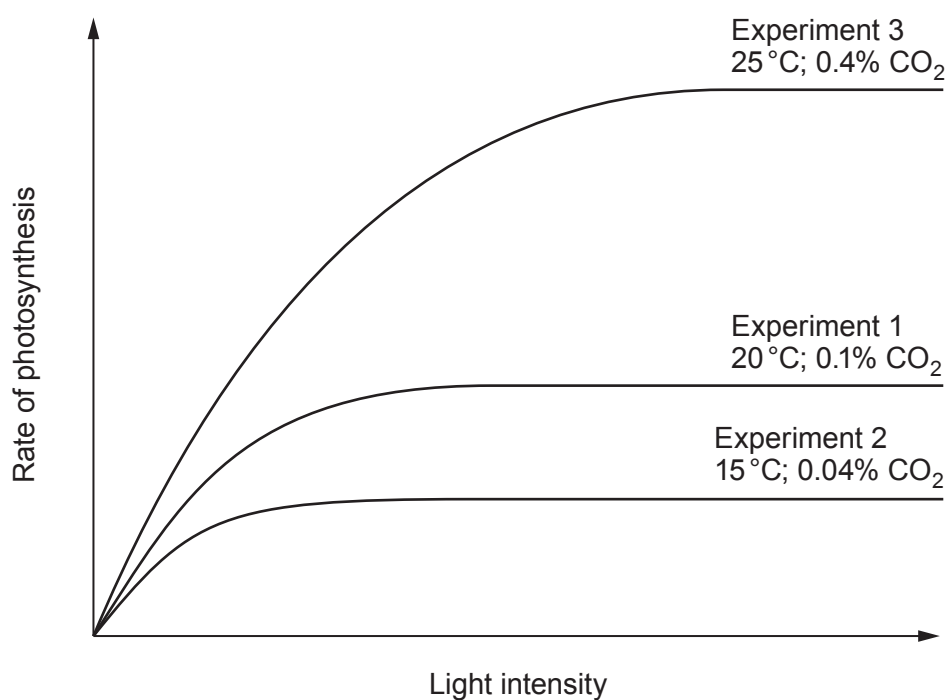

.....

.....

.....

.....

(c) The rate of photosynthesis is affected by light intensity, temperature and carbon dioxide concentration as shown in the graph below.

Use the information in the graph to describe how differences in light intensity, temperature and carbon dioxide concentration affect the rate of photosynthesis.

[3]

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....