

Question				Marking details	Marks available
					AO1	AO2	AO3	Total	Maths	Prac
6	(a)	(i)		A change from {optimal/normal} (internal conditions)/ OWTTE (1) resulting in the body (compensating/responding and) restoring {balance/optimal conditions/normal conditions/set level} (1)	2			2
		(ii)		temperature pH/ carbon dioxide glucose/ sugar water/ salt/ named ions Any three correct for 2 marks Any two correct for 1 mark	2			2
	(b)	(i)		Any two (x1) from: - Exercise (1) - Too much insulin (injected) (1) - Not eaten / not had enough {food/sugar/ named food source}/ long time since last meal/ fasting (1) ignore reference to blood sugar being too low		2		2
		(ii)		Reference to the role of liver (glucagon travels to liver or conversion within liver or storage of glycogen in liver)(1) (Glucagon) converts glycogen into glucose (1) Concentration of blood glucose level rises (above 4.0 mmol/l / to normal range)/ glucose is released into the blood / blood glucose returns to optimum (1) Accept blood sugar for blood glucose levels		3		3
				Question 6 total	4	5	0	9	0	0