

| Question |     |      |    | Marking details                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | Marks available |          |          |           |          |          |
|----------|-----|------|----|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|----------|----------|-----------|----------|----------|
|          |     |      |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        | AO1             | AO2      | AO3      | Total     | Maths    | Prac     |
|          |     |      | II | Horizontal line drawn at 119 (length of line is not important)Tolerance less than one small square 116- 123Ecf                                                                                                                                                 |                 |          | 1        | 1         |          | 1        |
|          |     | (iv) |    | Lactic acid {build up / produced} / anaerobic respiration creates lactic acid (1)Ref to oxygen debt (1)ref to oxygen required to {break down / get rid of / remove} lactic acid /oxygen is required to convert lactic acid to carbon dioxide and water (1) | 2               |          |          | 2         |          |          |
|          | (c) |      |    | Because less ATP produced / ORA) /only produces 2 ATP / Anaerobic produces 2 ATP but aerobic produces {more / 38}incomplete breakdown of glucose during anaerobic respiration /less energy released / ORA                                           | 1               |          |          | 1         |          |          |
|          |     |      |    | Question 7 total                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                | 5        | 4 | 2 | 11 | 3 | 3 |