

4. State the reagent used to produce phenylmethanol from benzaldehyde. [1]

.....

5. The gas chromatogram shows peaks for the products formed by the Friedel-Crafts alkylation of methylbenzene at 0 °C.

A

B

C

Use the data to calculate, to the appropriate number of significant figures, the percentage of 1,3-dimethylbenzene, which is present in the products. [1]

Percentage = %

6. Give the systematic name of a compound of formula $C_5H_{10}O_2$ that gives propan-1-ol as one of the products when it is warmed with aqueous sodium hydroxide. [1]

.....

