				5-6 marks The candidate includes five points with valid discussion of entropy, enthalpy and the position of equilibrium There is a sustained line of reasoning which is coherent, relevant, substantiated and logically structured. The information included in the response is relevant to the argument. 3-4 marks The candidate includes four points with valid discussion of two of entropy, enthalpy and the position of equilibrium There is a line of reasoning which is partially coherent, largely relevant, supported by some evidence and with some structure. Mainly relevant information is included in the response but there may be some minor errors or the inclusion of some information not relevant to the argument. 1-2 marks The candidate includes two relevant points There is a basic line of reasoning which is not coherent, supported by limited evidence and with very little structure. There may be significant errors or the inclusion of information not relevant to the argument. 0 marks No attempt made or no response worthy of credit.
