

| Question |     |      |    | Marking details                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | Marks available |     |     |       |       |      |
|----------|-----|------|----|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-----|-----|-------|-------|------|
|          |     |      |    |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            | AO1             | AO2 | AO3 | Total | Maths | Prac |
| 13.      | (a) | (i)  |    | it is compound N (1)singlet for the —CH <sub>3</sub> group bonded to the carbon atom of the double bond that is also bonded to the bromine atom (2.2δ) (1)the CH proton is as a quartet – split by the adjacent CH <sub>3</sub> protons (5.7δ) (1)the other —CH <sub>3</sub> group is a doublet, split by the adjacent CH proton (1.7δ) (1) |                 |     | 4   | 4     |       |      |
|          |     | (ii) | I  | add aqueous bromine / aqueous acidified manganate(VII) – this is decolourised by L , M and N but unaffected by bromocyclobutane                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |                 | 1   |     | 1     |       | 1    |
|          |     |      | II | bromocyclobutane would only give three <sup>13</sup> C signals (1)L , M and N would each give four signals as each carbon atom is in a different environment for these alkenes (1)accept answer based on C=C at δ 90 to 150 present in L , M and N but not in bromocyclobutane                                   |                 | 2   |     | 2     |       |      |
|          | (b) |      |    | curly arrows (1)partial / full charges (1)regeneration of catalyst (1)                                                                                                                                                                                                  | 3               |     |     | 3     |       |      |

| Question |     |       |  | Marking details                                                                                                                                                               | Marks available |     |     |       |       |      |
|----------|-----|-------|--|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------|-----|-----|-------|-------|------|
|          |     |       |  |                                                                                                                                                                               | AO1             | AO2 | AO3 | Total | Maths | Prac |
|          | (c) | (i)   |  | 1:1 molar ratio<math>0.150 \times 159.8 = 23.97 \text{ g}</math> (1) |                 | 2   |     | 2     |       |      |
|          |     | (ii)  |  | potassium cyanide / sodium cyanide                                                                                                                                            | 1               |     |     |       |       | 1    |
|          |     | (iii) |  | dilute sulfuric acid / hydrochloric acid                                                                                                                                      | 1               |     |     |       |       | 1    |
|          |     |       |  | Question 13 total                                                                                                                                                             | 5               | 5   | 4   | 14    | 0     | 3    |