

11. The diagram shows the laboratory apparatus that can be used to model the manufacture of aqueous sodium hydroxide (NaOH), chlorine (Cl_2) and hydrogen (H_2) from aqueous sodium chloride, NaCl .

Aqueous sodium chloride contains the ions Na^+ , Cl^- , OH^- and H^+ .

Explain, in terms of ions, the formation of each of the three products. Include equations to support your answer. [6 QER]

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

.....

END OF PAPER

6

