

Question				Marking details	Marks available
					AO1	AO2	AO3	Total	Maths	Prac
				Biodiversity - Increased land use for building destroys habitats and reduces biodiversity / increased extinction of species - To maintain biodiversity it is important that there are seed banks, captive breeding programmes and protected habitats. Global warming - Increased Carbon footprint - Increased temperature - Rising water levels - Extreme weather - Reduce fossil fuel use - Increased use of renewables Eutrophication - Fertilizers enter water system - Algal bloom - Dead fish Acid Rain - Changes pH of lakes - Kill fish - Destroy forests						