

5. (a) The diagram below shows how Nia's blood glucose levels vary over a typical day.

Use the information in the diagram and your own knowledge to explain how Nia's blood glucose is controlled. [6 QER]

- (b) Diabetics cannot control their blood glucose levels. State two ways in which diabetes can be treated. [2]

1.

2.

- (c) (i) State the test used to detect the presence of glucose in urine and describe how this test is carried out. [2]

test:

description:

- (ii) State what results would be observed in this test in a diabetic patient and a person not suffering from diabetes. [2]

diabetic:

non-sufferer: